State of South Dakota
Directions for the Disposition of My Body at Death as authorized by statute number 34-26-1.

This law gives your wishes the highest legal priority, and those may not be overridden by kin. Bear in mind, however, that kin are not obligated to arrange or pay for funeral arrangements that are impossible, impractical, or unaffordable for them.

I, ____________________________________________, direct that my body be disposed of in the following manner (you may include, or not, directions for any associated ceremonies or rites):

___________________________________________________________________________________
___________________________________________________________________________________
___________________________________________________________________________________
___________________________________________________________________________________
___________________________________________________________________________________
___________________________________________________________________________________
___________________________________________________________________________________
___________________________________________________________________________________
___________________________________________________________________________________

___________________________________ __________________________
(signature) (date)